THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM this morning will be celebrated for Caroline Joy Somers, daughter of Shawn and Kimberly Somers who was born on January 28. Sponsors for Caroline are Scott Somers and Kylie Wilkerson. We take great comfort in the blessings which God gives to each of us through the waters of Baptism. For as St. Paul writes: "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? We were buried therefore with Him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with Him in a death like His, we shall certainly be united with Him in a resurrection like His." (Romans 6:3-5)

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS Over the course of the next several weeks we will be taking a look at selected Psalms. The study starts at 9:15 each Sunday. Come and join us for discussion and insight. We are currently looking at the liturgical psalms.

Federation of Lutheran Churches of Cincinnati will be hosting a “Dramatic Presentation of the Gospel of Mark” on April 14, 6:30 pm at St. Paul Lutheran, Madisonville. Tickets are free, but you are requested to register for tickets by calling Linda Schuester @ 513-221-3187

God does not command us to live in poverty. We can cite many Biblical characters who were wealthy and yet pleased their Lord. God, after all, is the creator of all good things. We are foolish, however, to hoard our possessions or put our trust in wealth. Paul urges us to “put [our] hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment” (1 Timothy 6:17), and he further reminds us that God makes us “rich in every way so that [we] can be generous on every occasion” (2 Corinthians 9:11) with the result that glory will be given to God.

Prayer: Dear Lord, grant me the faith I need to acknowledge you as the creator and source of all things. I thank you for all my blessings, and I ask you to forgive me when I fail to thank you for all that you’ve done and continue to do for me. I am truly thankful for my material blessings, but I especially want to thank you the spiritual blessings that are mind throughout eternity. In Christ’s name I pray. Amen.

ARE YOU A STORY TELLER? Some people have a unique gift of telling stories. If you would like to help with VBS this year, we are in need of “story tellers” who will present the Biblical story for the night. If you are interested in helping us out this year with something new, please speak with Janet Wood ASAP. We would also like to have a discussion of this format next Sunday, April 8 following the morning worship. VBS for this summer is scheduled for July 9 – 13.
