Thank You, Heavenly Father, for Your special gift of mothers; Thank You for the mother who lets her child know without doubt he or she is loved, and for the child who returns that love. Lord, today we pray You will protect and guide mothers everywhere; that You will grant them Your wisdom in loving and teaching their children. Today, may children everywhere remember the warm caresses and whispers in the night; the tears dried and Band-Aids, the peach cobbler, the laughter; and the blood curdling scream, "No!" at the brink of danger. Thank You for the mothers, who played with us, taught us, nurtured us, fed us, listened to us and tried to understand us.

Today, may we remember Mom's beauty when we were young; and her loveliness discovered as we aged. Lord, today draw especially close the mothers who are alone, for whatever reason; and grant them Your comfort, Your pleasure, Your peace. And, Lord, for children who are alone, because of distance, death, or indifference, may good memories flood their minds. And if there is not a good memory, may forgiveness burst forth from their hearts and revive in them long lost joy.

Thank you particularly for phone calls today, and for a shared "I Love You." Today as we honor, celebrate, or simply reflect on the woman who gave us birth, or who adopted us into her heart. We thank You, Lord, for life, and for Mom! In Jesus name. Amen.
