The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost September 2, 2018

“In every task you tackle, at every moment in life, in whatever situation you find yourself, you have a calling, a vocation. You get to bless people. You get to show God’s love. You get to elevate the conversation, change the perspective, and bring dignity into a difficult world. You get to live in the life that He gifts you with, love meant for you, love meant for all.” Rev. Dr. Gregory Seltz, speaker on The Lutheran Hour

Let us pray:

On this Labor Day weekend, bless all honest and faithful labor, leisure and rest, and the arts and culture of our people. Provide for all who are unemployed or underemployed. Take under Your special protection those whose work is difficult or dangerous, and be with all who put their hands to any useful task. Give them the just rewards for their labor and the knowledge that their work is a blessing in Your sight. Lord, in Your mercy, Amen
