Finding Contentment

Our obsession with money can interfere with a relationship with Christ. Our challenge is to keep money in its proper perspective and learn to be content. With contentment, the poor man is rich and without it, the rich man is poor. There are two ways we can strive to have enough. We can try to accumulate more, or we can learn to be satisfied with less. If we pursue the first way, accumulating more, we will discover that money won't buy lasting satisfaction, because, as we read in Ecclesiastes 5:10, more is never enough. As hard as it is, we need to curb our desire for more by concentrating on the blessings we do have. Being satisfied with less and using what we have in God-pleasing ways contributes to our contentment. Those who have less and are content are better off than those who have much and always want more. God's wisdom is found in the words of Jesus "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well" (Matthew 6:33).

Prayer: Good and gracious heavenly Father, you are the creator and owner of all things. I am privileged that you have granted me the opportunity to be a steward of your creation. I know that by nature that I am selfish and greedy. Help me to be thankful and content with all that you have entrusted to me. Grant me faith to be a God-pleasing steward. In Christ's name I pray. Amen.
