BIBLE STUDY ON SUNDAYS Go and Be Reconciled: What Does

This Mean reflects on the biblical teaching for reconciliation while reviewing the six chief parts of Christian doctrine from Luther's Small Catechism. Our current study is looking at the Ten Commandments. How do the Commandments reflect my need to be reconciled with God and with my neighbor? This study is designed to help God's people appreciate the gift of reconciliation that is theirs in Jesus Christ and to improve their service as Christ's ambassadors in everyday life (2 Cor, 5:20).

A special evening with Ohio District President, Rev Kevin Wilson is set for Tuesday, February 4 beginning at 6:30–8:00. Coffee, drinks and some delicious hors d'oeuvres will be available beginning 6:00 and through-out

The purpose of this visit is four-fold:

- Identify programs or ministries offered at your church that might benefit other congregations.
- Provide suggestions and guidance for your church going forward.
- Share with the congregation what is happening in the Ohio District.

Feb 2nd -- after church

GREETERS WANTED. Peace Lutheran Church is in need of more greeters. If you can to church at least twenty minutes before church starts and are willing to shake hands with a smile, you are qualified to be a greeter. This is an important job, not only to greet our members, but also to make any visitor feel welcome. If you are interested, please give Dick Keller a call at 574-1429. Thank you for your consideration.

Generous Reflections A "steward" is defined as a manager of someone else's property. In God's Word, a "steward" was put in charge of his master's household and given full authority to manage all of his material belongings. In 1 Corinthians 4:2 Paul wrote, "Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful." As God's stewards, we are entrusted with many things. First and foremost, God has entrusted us to spread the Good News of Jesus. Being stewards of the Gospel is an important part of being a good and faithful steward.
